

William A. Evans

Managing Director, Private Client Group, Stone & Youngberg LLC

William A. Evans, a thirty-five year veteran of the securities industry, joined Stone & Youngberg in 1998 as head of the firm's Private Client Group. In this role, Mr. Evans has tripled client assets, revenues and sales force head count, while maintaining the highest level of professionalism and client service. He has introduced many new client services and investment alternatives during his tenure with the firm, including fee-based accounts, retirement plans, and various securitized real-estate offerings.

Prior to joining Stone & Youngberg, Mr. Evans spent twenty-five years with a national New York Stock Exchange member firm. He was also the founder and chairman of San Francisco Securities, Inc., a local NASD (now FINRA) member firm. Mr. Evans has served as an arbitrator for the NASD and the NYSE, and was a member of the Ethics and Business Conduct Committee of the Pacific Coast Stock Exchange. He was previously a member of the FINRA's District One Committee, serving as Chairman in 2006. He was also a member of the 2006 National Advisory Council and is currently a member of the FINRA's Western Region Consultative Committee and the District One Nominating Committee.

Education

B.S., Finance, University of Arizona

B.S., Business Administration, University of Arizona