

Jack Turner

Managing Director, Taxable Fixed Income Group, Stone & Youngberg LLC

Jack Turner is Head of Stone & Youngberg's Taxable Fixed Income Group. Since joining the firm in 2005, Mr. Turner has launched a new downtown Chicago office and expanded operations in the key Midwest fixed income market. He also started the firm's Portfolio Strategy Group, enabling Stone & Youngberg to provide state-of-the-art portfolio analytics to the firm's fixed income clients.

Mr. Turner brought 25 years of sales and trading expertise in both domestic and international markets to Stone & Youngberg. Prior to joining the firm, he was Managing Director of Banc One Capital Markets, where he served as head of middle market sales. Mr. Turner also was Executive Managing Director for 15 years at Carroll McEntee & McGinley (acquired by HSBC), and headed domestic and international sales, franchise trading, and broker/dealer sales and trading. In addition, he was responsible for CM&M asset management and the firm's futures operation. Mr. Turner also served as a board member of HSBC Securities, Inc., CM&M Asset Management, and CM&M Futures.

Mr. Turner began his career as an Assistant Investment Officer for the California State Treasurer, where he helped develop the Local Agency Investment Fund (LAIF). He then worked as a Senior Portfolio Manager for the State of Oregon Treasurer. In addition, he served two years in Vietnam with the U.S. Army infantry.

Education

B.A., California State University, Sacramento